IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

AUGUST 2, 1993

Mr. ENGEL (for himself and Mr. PORTER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

To provide for an investigation of the whereabouts of the United States citizens and others who have been missing from Cyprus since 1974.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. UNITED STATES CITIZENS AND OTHERS MISS-
4 ING FROM CYPRUS.

5 (a) INVESTIGATION.—As soon as is practicable, the 6 President shall undertake, in cooperation with an appro-
7 priate international organization or nongovernmental or-8 ganization, a thorough investigation of the whereabouts of 9 the United States citizens and others who have been miss-
10 ing from Cyprus since 1974. The investigation shall focus

1 on the countries and community which were combatants
2 in Cyprus in 1974, all of which currently receive United 3 States foreign assistance.

4 (b) RESULTS OF THE INVESTIGATION.—The Presi-
5 dent shall report the findings of this investigation to the 6 family of each of the United States citizens and others
7 who have been missing from Cyprus since 1974 and to 8 the Congress. Such reports shall include the whereabouts
9 of the missing.

10 (c) RETURNING THE MISSING.—The President, in 11 cooperation with an appropriate international organization
12 or nongovernmental organization, shall do everything pos-
13 sible to return to their families, as soon as is practicable,
14 the United States citizens and others who have been miss-
15 ing from Cyprus since 1974, including returning the re-
16 mains of those who are no longer alive.
